

Indoor Air Quality Workshop

Sponsored by Clark County Public Health

Open to the Public

When: November 8, 4:30 – 6:30 PM
Where: Center for Community Health
Conference Room A210A
1601 E Fourth Plain Blvd
Vancouver, WA

Workshop Presenter

Laura White from DOH; Mold & Moisture in Home, Representative from Vancouver Community Mediation Services; Communications Skills, and Clark County Staff; Radon and Second Hand Smoke.

And

Jason Friesen, MD and Cindy Cooper, RN will be available to answer mold related questions.

Other Important Air Quality Topics

Secondhand smoke in the home is a significant risk for nonsmokers, especially babies, young children and anyone with a heart or lung condition such as asthma or emphysema.

COME PREPARED TO:

- Learn Tips on Landlord Communications and Problem Solving
- Get Answers to your In-Door Air Quality Questions

